HALF 'N' HALF is a magazine published by David R. Lindsay, 2245 Fairmont Parkway, Erie, Pa. 16510 (814) 456-2489. Subscriptions and trades are a subject handled below, due to the fact that HALF 'N' HALF is now a sub-zine of Lonely Mountain. There are openings for Parliament and Diplomacy, price for each is $3.00. Any and all comments are welcomed.

 Underlined moves do not succeed. England, Austria, and Turkey may build one unit each; ~~Germany~~ Italy, and Russia may build none; Germany (Gaspl) may build two units. Deadline: MARCH 14, 1969, for Winter, 1901/2

CONSTANTINOPLE (Sept. 2, 1901): The Sultan was reported "horrified" by the news that the peaceful people of Galacia had been enslaved by the Slavic Imperialists. In a speech before the Supreme Council, the Earthly Representative of Allah stated that full support shall be "extended to our stalwart allies, the Austrian people." A Declaration of War against the Czarist aggressors was approved unanimously.

TSK-TSK DEPT: Two players have missed moves this turn. So, in accordance with the Rules, Jim Goldman is requested to send in postcard announcing his willingness to play Russia (as determined by a flip of the coin). If no word is heard from either Goldman, St. Cyr (who, if he sends a postcard, is still in as Russia) or Reiter (ditto) then Russia and Italy will be declared in a state of permanent Civil Disorder. So send in those post cards, guys.

NEW-MANAGEMENT DEPT: As mentioned, lnz is now a sub-zine of IM. What does this mean to you? To the players this means a choice for them: CC or Xerox publication. The difference is time. I can only Xerox on Tuesday and Thursday, while I can CC anytime. So, you players, in your next deadline letter or card, please indicate whether you prefer CC or Xerox. Majority decision rules, with the Editor breaking any ties. You lucky editors getting lnz by trades also have a choice. XX HALF 'N' HALF will be part of every IM and will not be sent out separately. So, if you still want to trade you will get lnz in the pages of IM, where it will be at least twice as long, perhaps longer, with (hopefully) two other games. More for you this way, friends. If you want to get lnz this way, via IM, don't have to do anything. Those who object should send a note saying so. I hope none of you will.

NOTE: SEND A LETTER TO JOHN KONING (917 E. GORRAS ST. LOUISVILLE, OHIO 44641) & ASK FOR A LETTER DESIGNATION
 SO FAR, MY ASKING HAS PRODUCED NO RESULT. David
